

Cub Scout Pack

Pack Website:

Info Sheet

Cub Scouts is a game with a purpose. Scouts have fun, make friends, and experience new adventures while building character, improving physical fitness, and developing a sense of community.

Cub Scouts have two types of meetings, Pack and Den Meetings. The pack is the WHOLE group, K through 5th. The Den is your small group. Dens are assigned based on your scout's current grade level.

Costs

There are 3 areas of costs associated with your Scouting experience.

Annual Registration - National and Council fees. This covers BSA membership and insurance for 12 months.

The current fee is $150

Pack Activity Fee - Also called Pack dues. This money goes to the Pack and covers supplies for den and pack meetings, activities, events, and awards.

The fee for Pack for the 2024-25 scout year is $

Additional Costs - Uniform, handbook, and some scouting events and activities you can opt to participate in, such as campouts.

Scouts are encouraged to "earn their way" by participating in annual fundraisers. Fall popcorn/nut sales and Spring Camp Card sales can help offset these costs and even earn a free week at summer camp.
